

Maryland's Child Trafficking Regional Navigator Program

FAQs

What is the Maryland Regional Navigator Program (RNPG)?

The RNPG was developed after Governor Hogan signed into law the Child Sex Trafficking Screening and Services Act of 2019. The law requires Law Enforcement agents and Local Departments of Social Services (LDSS) who suspect or have reason to believe a child is a victim of sex trafficking to notify a Regional Navigator in their jurisdiction or region to obtain needed services for the child.

By the end of 2022, each county/region in Maryland will have a designated Regional Coordinator of victim services for high-risk and trafficked youth.

Who can the Regional Navigators serve?

Any youth/young adult up to the age of 24 who is suspected or confirmed to be a victim of sex trafficking.

What services do the Regional Navigators provide to youth trafficking victims or those suspected of being trafficked?

The Regional Navigators can assist with conducting screening assessments and providing or connecting youth with the following services: Safety planning, Emergency response, Basic living needs (not including housing), Trauma counseling and mental health services, Drug and alcohol abuse treatment, Legal services, Victim advocacy, and Case management.

How will the Regional Navigators collaborate and partner with the Local Departments of Social Services (LDSS) and Local Law Enforcement?

A workgroup, comprised of LDSS CPS Supervisors/Managers and Regional Navigators, has been formed to develop recommendations for how to support the Regional Navigators in collaborating and partnering with the LDSS. The Regional Navigators can also assist in providing human trafficking training and resources for their LDSS and Law Enforcement partners.

How are the Regional Navigators connected to other anti-trafficking efforts in the county/state?

The Regional Navigators participate on county or regional human trafficking Task Forces/Collaboratives, as well as the Maryland Human Trafficking Task Force Victim Services Subcommittee.
